

SOCIETY

One of the socially important weddings of the season is the chief event of interest in society circles today. Miss Jessica Shortt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Shortt, and Mr. Charles Wolff, Jr., were married this afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Very Rev. James P. deBevers, dean of Grace Cathedral.

The wedding arrangements were of the utmost simplicity; there being no attendants or musical guests. The immediate relatives of Miss Shortt and Mr. Wolff. The service was read at the home of the bride's parents, 1020 West Eighth avenue.

The bride wore her going-away costume of dark blue gaberdine, made after the military style so much in vogue at present. The blouse was of blue chiffon and white tulle. Her hat was of the spring salooners in black. Her bouquet was a corsage of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The decorations in the house were as beautiful as the floral adornment customary for large weddings. For the reading of the ceremony, the bride couple stood in the living room. The wall was curtained with the new shades of orange, combined with cream thread lace. A cape of this lace fell from the shoulders and across the front of the bodice. Her hat was of black velvet trimmed with plumes.

Mrs. Curtis and Miss Curtis will receive every Tuesday afternoon from three to six during the month of February. They are not issuing any formal invitations, but the legislators' wives who are in Topeka during the session and other visiting women, as well as Topeka women, are asked to call.

A few guests were invited to dine Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Skinner, at Mills Tea room. Covers were placed for Miss Cecilia Crawford, of Houston, Tex., who has been visiting the Skimmers, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. McDonough, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mulroy, and Mr. and Mrs. Skinner.

Miss Crawford, who has been a guest at the Skinner home recently, will leave tonight for her home. She has met a good many of the friends of her hosts while she has been in Topeka, and they will be interested in her engagement announcement. Miss Crawford will be married to Judge Raymond Dillman of South Dakota in the spring. The marriage will take place early in May at the bride's home in Houston, Texas.

Miss Crawford is a sister of Judge in his state, and he and his bride will make their home in South Dakota.

Miss Crawford is one of the attractive visitors who have contributed to the social gaieties of the town since her arrival.

Miss May Tomlinson entertained the following friends at an informal party this afternoon: Miss Gertrude Gray, Miss Winifred Hartley, Miss Juliet Brown, Miss Margaret Dolan, Miss Polly Nowers, Miss Mildred Bowman and Miss Mary Weightman.

Mrs. Oscar Perkins was at home informally this afternoon for her aunt, Mrs. D. A. Forman, and Miss Winifred Forman of Des Moines, Ia., who are visiting Mrs. Perkins and her father, Col. H. C. Lindsey. Mrs. Forman and Miss Forman expect to leave next week for a trip to Oregon and California to remain the rest of the winter.

The morning meetings and the cafeteria luncheon of the Topeka Federation of Women will be held Tuesday day at the Y. W. C. A., and the afternoon session, in charge of the department of music, will be held in the audience room of the First Presbyterian building.

The board of management will meet at ten o'clock. The two departmental meetings and the luncheon are open to the members of the federation and each member is entitled to bring one guest. The department of civics and justice will have a meeting from 11 to 12, in charge of Mrs. C. J. Evans.

The home economics department will meet from 12 to 1, under the leadership of Mrs. John T. Chaney, vice chairman. The program for this meeting will be a novel one, with the following women taking part: Mrs. J. C. Gafford, Miss Carolyn Thomas, Mrs. Norman Wear, Mrs. William Macfarren, Mrs. DeWitte C. Nellis, Mrs. George M. Stone, Mrs. H. E. Ray, Mrs. J. E. Ward, Mrs. J. M. Brier, Mrs. Claude Nell, Mrs. Patrick Walsh, Miss Helen Curry, Mrs. Frank Bonbrake, Mrs. H. B. Wilson, Mrs. A. B. Jetmore and Miss Nanon Herren.

The afternoon meeting, which will be a musicale, will begin at 2:30 o'clock, and each member of the federation is asked to come, and each one may bring two guests. The federation has employed the services of Mrs. Margaret Fowler Forbes of Kansas City, a violinist of ability, well known to many Topeka people, for the afternoon program.

Mrs. Fowler Forbes, chairman of the music department of the federation, will give the musicale jointly, and their program will be as follows: Autumn Song, by John Adams Lund Un Delvi (from Madame Butterfly) Puccini.

Mrs. Parkhurst. Romance. Rondo. Call Me No More. Cadman. How Many Times Do I Love Thee? Manney. Kypria. Holmes. Idyl. MacDowell. Captain. Rogers.

Speaking of the impossibility of accounting for tastes, at a recent free-for-all official party, two men on the upper floor of the building where the jamboree was held, stood leaning on the banister, watching the great ones at play below. Presently one of the town's celebrities came into view, with his wife who is thought by her friends to be more than ordinarily attractive looking. One of the men, who was leaning in the direction of the couple crossing the floor, was heard to say: "Look down yonder at that fellow. You know who he is, don't you?" "Yes," the other answered, "but never did see his wife. Is she pretty?" "I should say not," was the reply. "Not in the face."

NEW CANE FAD IS GAINING HEADWAY

Miss Marguerite Arbuckle and her case.

A new fad has been introduced at Palm Beach, where the winter season is now on in full swing. The women there are carrying canes, and they say the fad will spread. Miss Marguerite Arbuckle of New York, who is one of the fashionables at the Florida winter resort, takes kindly to the innovation.

Long sleeves, airy white net and flit lace are combined here in the latest mode for lingerie creation. In this dress pink meshline was used for girdle, collar and sleeves. My lady will put the pink rose in her belt to echo the pink slit under the lace. The hat is of shirred lace with pink roses.

Warmed Baked Beans.—To every cup of cold beans add a quarter of a cup of tomatoes. Heat thoroughly and serve in individual bean pots.

Passy willow green taffeta with hand painted butterflies in black and orange sitting across its surface is used here for an enchanting full skirted costume of the late Victorian period. The little coat lace frilled is quaintly in keeping and so is the leghorn hat with drooping brim.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—Adv.
